Whenever we hear a person say all professors of religion are hypocrites, and there is no church good enough for them to belong to, and they are afraid to go to church for fear of committing sin. We sometimes ask ourselves the question, would the church be any better if such persons belonged to it?

OHIO BRIEFS.

What's Doing in the Buckeye State. Not Preferred Creditor.

Lancaster, O., July 31.—Judge Reeves rendered his decision in the case of County Treasurer J. B. Kramer against H. B. Peters, receiver of the defunct Lancaster bank, in which Kramer sought to be made a preferred creditor of the bank. When the Lancaster bank closed its doors two years ago Kramer had on deposit there $20,000 of county funds. Judge Reeves held that Kramer was only a general creditor and his claim was not a preferred one; that he would have to take his chances with the balance of the creditors.

Mr. Rockefeller came down to the depot from Pocantico Hills alone and waited about the depot for some time. Then John D. Mr. Archbold said that Mr. Rockefeller would not be arrested or bothered when he reached Cleveland.

Critchfield Again Adjutant General.

Columbus, O., July 31.—Governor Harris announced the appointment of A. B. Critchfield of Shreve to succeed General O. H. Hughes as adjutant general. Believe Brother Was Murdered.

Warren, O., July 31.—B. J. Joseph, James and Richard Kennedy, brothers of Albert Kennedy, whose headless body was found at Mantua Thursday, arrived here to investigate his death. Abducted by Gypsies.

Canton, O., July 31.—Nora Rhon, a 13-year-old girl of Navarre, O., was kidnapped by a band of gypsies who were in camp at that place last week. The girl's mother is dead and the only daughter, Nora, kept house for her father on a farm. The father was away from home at the time of the abduction.

Hit by Stray Bullet.

Geneva, O., July 31.—Frank Jeppe, 19, was shot and mortally wounded by a stray rifle ball which struck him while he was picking blackberries in a pasture on the home farm. The bullet lodged in his spine. The source of the bullet and intent of the person or persons firing it is a mystery.

MRS. COREY GETS DECREE

Jury Awards Her Divorce From President of Steel Trust.

GRANTED CUSTODY OF SON

No Evidence Submitted by the Defendant, the Case Going to the Jury Without Argument—Testimony of Miss Corey, the Boy Allen and the Plaintiff.

Reno, Nev., July 31.—A divorce on the ground of desertion was awarded here to Mrs. William Ellis Corey, wife of the president of the United States Steel corporation. The case was submitted to the jury without argument, and the jury took but one ballot. It was out but a few minutes. Mrs. Corey was in tears when told that she had been given a decree and the custody of her 16-year-old son, Allan Corey. She drove at once to her home on Riverside avenue, where she says she will continue to reside. No evidence was submitted by the defense and there was no argument. Matter of alimony was not introduced. Mrs. Corey made an interesting admission, however, touching upon this phase of the case, stating that in May, 1906, several weeks before her petition for divorce was filed, she negotiated, through her attorneys, a financial settlement with her husband. She was not asked what the nature of this settlement was.

WILLIAM ELLIS COREY.

At the conclusion of the trial Attorney Sardis Summerfield of Reno stated that his client, William Ellis Corey, was as anxious for the decree of divorce as his wife.

When placed on the stand, Mrs. Corey said: "I am a resident of Reno, Nev., and the wife of William Ellis Corey, the defendant in this action. We were married on Dec. 1, 1883, at Pittsburg, Pa., and lived together until May 1, 1906. At that time my husband deserted me and went to New York. I followed him and held a conversation with him in the Hotel Lorraine. It was there that he told me that he had decided to live apart. He said that it was impossible for us to live happily together and that I would never see him again. He stated that he intended going to Europe for several months. There was no scene. I talked with him about the matter and urged him to again resume his place in our home, but he refused. I have never seen him since."

Miss Addie Corey, sister of the respondent, was an interesting witness. She corroborated Mrs. Corey's statement that Corey had deserted his wife, and told how she and her aged mother had made several ineffectual attempts to effect a reconciliation. Her brother, she said, had lost sight of his home, being absorbed in business and infatuated with the fast life of New York. "Do you consider Mr. Corey a proper custodian for his son?" she was asked. "I do not," she replied.

Allan Corey stated that at the time of the parting his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. "He said I was too young to understand the relations. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her side."

REVOLT IN PORT SHOT TO DEATH

But the Mutineers at the "Gibraltar of the North" Hold Out.

BATTLES FOUGHT IN FINLAND

Nine Warships Assist Loyal Troops in Suppressing the Secondary Outbreak—Mutinous Artillerymen Still Holding Positions at the Great Sveaborg Fortress.

Helsingfors, Finland, Aug. 1.—The great fortress of Sveaborg is reported entirely in the hands of the mutineers, who now have in their possession every kind of armament. Horrible scenes occurred during last night, when the fierce fighting was continued. The heaviest artillery was used during the conflict.

The rising is quelled in port and Skatudden fortress has been occupied by loyal troops. The municipal council has issued a proclamation urging the people, in view of possible danger, to remain quiet and not leave their houses. It advises them to assist the government in the maintenance of order.

Several officers were killed or wounded. The wounded were transported to Helsingfors. Colonel Natroff was bayoneted. He begged for transportation to the hospital, promising forgiveness in exchange. Instead, he was stoned and thrown into the water with a stone around his neck.

A hundred revolutionists, armed and half uniformed, marched to the Socialist club on George street. They demanded that the Socialist "Red Guard" mobilize and join a movement to relieve the thousand marines who are held within a cordon in Skatudden barracks by the loyal troops. The chiefs of the "Red Guard" are undecided whether to commence an armed uprising, as many of the population are completely out of sympathy with such a movement. The authorities apparently are paralyzed by the suddenness of the revolt. They were quite in ignorance as to which troops could be depended upon. Two officers were killed at Skatudden by marines before a large crowd of civilian sympathizers.

A force of revolutionary workmen from here occupied the railroad station at Riihio, 50 miles from Helsingfors, where the main line from St. Petersburg joins the line above mentioned. They destroyed the track to prevent the passage of military trains bringing reinforcements. The section hands of the roads have struck. The civilian revolutionists who took part in the rioting at Skatudden were disguised as sailors.

STORY OF REVOLT.

Conspirators Aimed to Seize Three Great Sea Fortresses.

Helsingfors, Aug. 1.—A gigantic military conspiracy aiming at the simultaneous capture of Russia's three great sea fortresses, Cronstadt, Sebastopol and Sveaborg, and arranged by the revolutionary military league, was prematurely sprung here Monday night by an attempt to arrest the members of a company of sailors who had mutinied on account of the death of one of their comrades, alleged to have been due to ill-treatment. The garrison of fortress at Sveaborg flamed instantly into revolt. All the artillerymen and sappers were involved. Only four companies of infantry remained loyal. The mutineers seized 40 machine guns and practically all the quick-firers and light artillery in the fortress, but even with this aid they were unable to hold the main fort against the loyal infantry. The fighting continued all night. The heaviest firing was heard from 10 o'clock in the evening until 1 in the morning.

Tuesday morning a detachment of civilian revolutionaries seized the marine barracks on Skatudden island, hoisted the red flag and were joined by all the marines. Nine cruisers, torpedo boats and destroyers lying in the harbor opened fire on the barracks. This fire was answered from the third-story windows of the barracks with machine guns and rifles. The torpedo boats and destroyers, which were lying closer to the shore, were subjected to such a hot fire from the barracks that their crews were driven below decks. They finally steamed out and joined in the bombardment with the cruisers. This sea attack was in co-operation with attacks by Cossacks and infantry from the land side, which began at 9 a. m. and continued through the day. Finally, towards evening, the firing ceased, and the authorities announced that the barracks had been captured.

SITUATION CRITICAL.

Russian Premier on the Revolt of Finnish Garrison. St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—Premier Stolypin has received frequent messages regarding the mutiny in Finland. He told a caller that the situation is critical to an extreme degree. Almost the entire fortress is in the hands of the insurgents, and there are comparatively few loyal troops in Helsingfors.

No report of the suppression of the revolt of the garrison at Sveaborg fortress, the "Gibraltar of the North," has been received in St. Petersburg up to this hour. The secondary uprising among the marines and troops at Skatudden barracks, on the peninsula communicating with the mainland, was crushed by loyal troops after heavy fighting in which nine cruisers, destroyers and torpedo boats participated.

The firing on the islands and from the fortress has ceased, and in spite of the fact that the occupation of the entire water front by Cossacks prevents the obtaining of positive news, it is understood at Helsingfors that
